

CONTENTS

SPECIAL ISSUE

Early Modern China in a Global Context:
Some Comparative Approaches

Guest Editors:
David Porter and Martin Huang

INTRODUCTION

Rethinking Comparison:
The Case of China in Early Modern Cultural Studies

DAVID PORTER

I

ESSAYS

The Novel and Sentimentalism in Seventeenth and Eighteenth-Century
Europe and China:
A Modest Proposal for Comparing Early Modern Literatures

PHILIPPE POSTEL

6

Cultural Mobility and Chinese Literary “Early Modernity”:
Trade, Printing, and Travel in Ming-Qing Vernacular Fiction

NING MA

38

Seeking Truth and Exposing Falsehood in Early Modern Prose Collections, or Seeing Faces in Pansies?

RIVI HANDLER-SPITZ

82

Science Fictions:
Early Modern Technological Change and Literary Response

S.E. KILE

III

Cannibal Translations:
Cultural Identity and Alterity in Early Modern China and Latin America

ANDREA BACHNER

146

Imports and Imitations:
The Taste for Japanese Lacquer in Eighteenth-Century China and Europe

KRISTINA KLEUTGHEN

175

CONTRIBUTORS

207